

Surveillance Plane Detections Per Day Within 15 Miles of Washington, DC in 2015

Chicago, IL

New York City

A multiplot comparing surveillance plane detection in Washington, DC, Chicago, IL, and New York City. Each bar indicates the number of surveillance plane detections within 15 miles of the respective city. Each chart contains information gathered between August 17, 2015 and December 31, 2015. Some notable events that occur near spikes in the surveillance counts are labeled accordingly. Data was provided by BuzzFeed News.